

Meet Violeta

My life

My name is Violeta Volioti de González. I was born and raised in Greece until I was 22. I have studied and worked in Spain, Burkina Faso, Guatemala and Dominican Republic. I live in Panama since 2022.

My studies

- Neurolanguage Coaching (ELC)
- MicroMaster in Instructional Design and Technology (University of Maryland, Edx)
- Specialization in Montessori Education (Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic)
- MSc in Environmental Pollution. (Madrid, Spain)
- BA (Hons) in Forestry and Natural Environment (Thessaloniki, Greece)

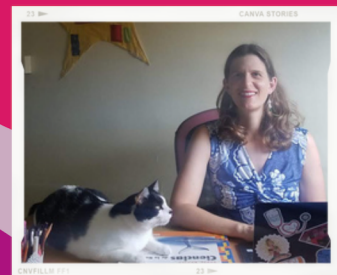

My working experience

2022-2024: fundadora de hispaniola
 2020-2022: Social Studies teacher (in Spanish), Santo Domingo
 2013-2020: Natural Science and Social Studies, Montessori guide (in Spanish) Santo Domingo
 2004-2012: Freelance Spanish teacher, Greece

My assistants

I love animals! I have two personal assistants: Blacky and Fluffy.

My Hobbies

Reading

Travelling

Art and Culture

Learning foreign languages

Tennis

Healthy cooking

Dancing

Listening to others

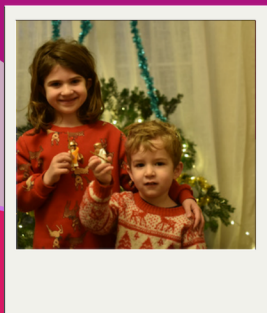

My family

I'm happily married to Iván González who is Dominican and we have 3 teens: Maya, Marcos, and Alexis (twins).

My brother lives in England with his wife and my nephews: Ianthe and Arion.

My parents and the rest of my family live in Greece.

My inspiration

Thinking about the big ideas that can be sowed in the minds of children and teens.

My beliefs

I firmly believe that a multilingual world is a better world; a world that fosters empathy, respect, and inclusivity.

My aspirations

Be a better person and teacher every day.

My motto

Learning to learn, teaching to learn.